FAF.BDA21.1 Fall 2023
Midterm 1 Evaluation Grid

Handed out: Monday, October 23, 2023

Evaluation criteria	Very good (9–10)	Good (7–8)	Satisfactory (5–6)	Unsatisfactory (1–4)
Requirements 1	Requirements correct, concrete and complete. Sound requirement descriptions	Requirements correct and concrete. Appropriate requirement descriptions	Requirements mostly correct. Requirements described	Incorrect or no requirements
Requirements 2	Requirements relevant and complete for chosen topic. Sound MVP requirements	Requirements relevant for chosen topic. Adequate MVP requirements	Requirements mostly relevant for chosen topic. MVP requirements present	Requirements irrelevant for chosen topic or no requirements
MVP 1	Demo fully functional. All parts of the application present and demonstrated	Demo fully functional. Some parts of the application present and demonstrated	Demo mostly functional. Some parts of the application present and demonstrated	Demo does not work or no demo
MVP 2	Application functionality fully inline with MVP requirements. Sound technology stack and complexity	Functionalities inline with requirements. Appropriate technology stack and complexity	Functionalities mostly inline with requirements. Naive technology stack and complexity	Functionalities not inline with requirements or no functionalities implemented
Version Control	Project tracked on a VCS platform. Sound README file and commit messages. Issues plan project development. PRs created and reviewed	Project tracked on a VCS platform. Sound README file and commit messages. Issues and PRs present and described	Project tracked on a VCS platform. README file and commits present	Project uploaded to VCS platform or not tracked